Dear Friend of Holy Family Radio,

Ouch. I just got a look at the Holy Family Radio bank account. It's not looking so good. I am told this letter needs to skip over the philosophical points and get to the money. Good point perhaps, but I hate to disappoint so many enthusiastic readers! (-:

As this letter is being written there is a conference downtown, the KY Bar Association continuing education update. Over 1500 of the Louisville area's legislators, judges and lawyers are sitting in a giant room reading scenarios and cases in law, equity and ethics, and judging the outcomes in an instant poll. The standard of truth, whether the outcome is "right" and "wrong," is the decision that the Supreme Court or Bar Association Ethics Committee reached. Did you catch that? The standards of "right" are the decisions of the Supreme Court and Bar Association! A room-full of the "best and brightest" are nodding their heads in agreement. The lawyers are being trained to obey those in power without regard to the moral law or even correct reasoning. Appeals to nature or nature's God are laughable in the age of abortion, gay everything and unlimited government.

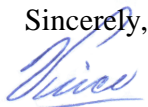

So is it worthwhile to continue to try to reach the Louisville, Mt. Washington and Shepherdsville areas with Catholic ideas? Is it worthwhile to keep trying to vindicate reason and truth in the age of moral and financial scandals even in the Church? How else will such great teachers as Bishop Robert Baron, Fr. Mitch Pacwa, Fr. Wade Menezes, Dr. David Anders, Dr. Ray Guarendi, Archbishop Fulton Sheen and Mike Janocik reach the people in the community with principles of reason, upright moral teaching and such? Consider the alternative: the Bon Air Library has a big display at the entrance promoting homosexuality, transgender and more.

"Make hay while the sun shines," they say. Shall we keep Catholic programming on the air or just give up and let the evil one take over the community? Obviously the liberals in the hierarchy have done us no favors, but Catholic radio apostolates are not liable for million dollar sex abuse payments. If even one soul is alerted to the evil in the current Louisville culture, is it not worth the minimal effort it takes to keep going? That one soul may be someone you know!

As old and tired as we are, every now and then we find out that people are listening. Someone calls with a question or comment or sends a note. It seems that it is not a waste of resources to put the Faith into the public square. It is not a waste of resources to try to teach people right from wrong as God sees it, not just as some committee does.

For Holy Family Radio, it is about the mission of the Church, the salvation of souls. Please join us in continuing to share the Gospel, keep us in your prayers and we will join in your works of mercy and evangelization! May God reward you!

Sincerely,

for Holy Family Radio
